~~the~~ don't think the buttons
will do what I want. I can only assume what they are for.

≡ looks like menu.

Is your parks for places I
want to park my car or places.
I want to allow others to park and
pay me?

I'll try that one anyway. Seems the closest to what I need.

Looks right is I have to put in an address.

I'm assuming notifications are to let me
know someone is using my space.

select a method

Everyday → specific Times.

- 4 There's no back button or cancel.
does the real app allow one to just change the bullet from Everyday to,
~~Week~~ days or Specific days.

I would have gone weekdays first.
but that must be for all weekdays.

Specific days

Ok - select Mon & Tue.

then change tue to specific time.
and adjust

Mon is already correct with all day.

Next.

That looks more like the page at the end
of login. should it be different.

5. I'm assuming the arrow will give me the closest park or at least lead me in the ~~right~~ direction. I could eye
it on the map.

I'll go with arrow for this one.

I guess the time might dictate the closest. If the actual closest is not available for long enough, it will show me the next closest that fits.

Find a park.

Rent this car park.

Car park space keeps popping into
my mind as I talk out loud.

I guess that's the start of directions.

6. X should cancel the ~~direction~~ ^{Park}.
Does it actually cancel the park or
just the directions.

7. I'm assuming the red markers are car park spaces. Are all three available. Red normally means stop.
Maybe green for available and red for there but not available. Maybe then one can look at the details and see
when it is available.

Ok.
click marker just near the green
area.

Rent this car park

The marker is green now.

~~Did~~ it go green last time.
the other markers are gone,

8. Not sure what this screen is telling me.

curious what the tick is for?

I guess I would use that when I get back to the car.

clicking on the green car just gives me the address.

~~It~~ can cancel here so what is the difference between clicking on the green car or the tick to cancel.

Anyway.

If I click the car icon it does the same thing as the green car. oh is that it. I then get directions.

9. I guess I could just x but maybe the ✓ is better since its still there.

YES. Im done.
